Brief Report

On June 28th, 2018, the Anti-Ragging Cell and Internal Complaint Committee of KPE Society's Dr. Ambedkar College of Arts and Commerce, Kalaburagi, organized an Awareness Programme on "Anti-Ragging" regulations in collaboration with Shri. Sanganna Walikar, a Senior Advocate from the District Court of Kalaburagi, who graced the occasion as the Chief Guest. The event commenced with a soulful prayer song performed by Kum. Ambika, a student of B.A. 1st semester. Dr. Nirmala Sirgapur, the Coordinator of the Women Counselling Cell and Anti-Ragging Cell, extended a warm welcome to the esteemed guests.

The programme was formally inaugurated with the dignitaries watering a plant, symbolizing growth and nurturing a safe environment for all. Shri. Sanganna Walikar delivered the first talk, emphasizing various laws and Acts pertaining to anti-sexual harassment. He elucidated on the legal framework surrounding sexual harassment and its grave implications. Following this, Shri. Vijaykumar shed light on the origins of ragging as a menace, elucidating on the various sections of the Indian Penal Code (IPC) related to ragging while stressing the importance of awareness and prevention.

Moreover, Shri. Sanganna Walikar encouraged students to promptly report any instances of ragging or sexual harassment to the authorities, emphasizing the significance of collective action in curbing such activities. In the concluding remarks, Dr. Nirmala Sirgapur expressed gratitude and appreciation, extending a heartfelt vote of thanks to all attendees and contributors.

The programme, attended by over 200 students from the first semester, served as a platform not only for raising awareness on anti-ragging measures but also fostering a culture of vigilance and support within the educational institution. Moving forward, it's imperative to continue such initiatives and delve deeper into topics like mental health support systems, peer counseling, and building a strong community to combat such challenges effectively.

Brief Report

On June 28th, 2018, KPE Society's Dr. Ambedkar College of Arts and Commerce, Kalaburagi, organized an Awareness Programme on the prohibition and prevention of sexual harassment in the college auditorium at 2 pm. Dr. Nirmala Sirgapur, addressing the students, provided comprehensive insights into The Sexual Harassment at Campus (Prevention, Prohibition, and Redressal) Act 2013. He emphasized the Act's significance in safeguarding students and reiterated the college's zero-tolerance policy towards any form of sexual harassment, affirming that strict actions would be taken against offenders.

Shri. Vijaykumar, in his address, highlighted the role and functions of the Anti-Sexual Harassment Cell within the college, underscoring its importance in ensuring a safe and conducive learning environment. The programme saw active participation from all members of the committee, as well as teaching and non-teaching staff. Additionally, students from the first year enthusiastically engaged in the event, demonstrating their commitment to fostering a culture of respect and dignity within the college premises.

Shri. Sanganna Walikar took the floor first, delving into the intricate web of laws and Acts aimed at combating sexual harassment. He meticulously dissected the legal framework surrounding this issue, accentuating its profound implications. Subsequently, Shri. Vijaykumar illuminated the origins of ragging, portraying it as a societal menace. He expounded upon the relevant sections of the Indian Penal Code (IPC) associated with ragging, underscoring the paramount importance of fostering awareness and implementing preventive measures.

Such initiatives are crucial in raising awareness and fostering a sense of responsibility among students and staff, contributing to the creation of a supportive and inclusive educational community. Moving forward, continuous efforts and proactive measures will be essential in upholding these principles and ensuring the well-being of all members of the college community.

Brief Report

On June 28th, 2019, KPE Society's Dr. Ambedkar College of Arts and Commerce, Kalaburagi, held an Awareness Programme on preventing sexual harassment in the college auditorium at 2 pm. Kum. Shalini addressed the students, offering detailed insights into The Sexual Harassment at Campus (Prevention, Prohibition, and Redressal) Act 2013. Emphasizing the Act's significance in safeguarding students, they reiterated the college's zero-tolerance policy towards any form of sexual harassment, with a commitment to taking strict actions against offenders.

Following this, Kum. Savitri Neelkanth highlighted the role and functions of the Anti-Sexual Harassment Cell within the college, emphasizing its importance in ensuring a safe learning environment. The programme witnessed active participation from all committee members, as well as teaching and non-teaching staff. First-year students enthusiastically engaged in the event, demonstrating their dedication to fostering a culture of respect and dignity within the college.

Dr. Harshavardhan began by exploring the complex network of laws and Acts aimed at combating sexual harassment, dissecting the legal framework surrounding the issue and its profound implications. Kum. Savitri Neelkanth then shed light on the origins of ragging, portraying it as a societal menace, and elaborated on relevant sections of the Indian Penal Code (IPC) associated with ragging, emphasizing the importance of awareness and preventive measures.

Such initiatives play a vital role in raising awareness and instilling a sense of responsibility among students and staff, contributing to the creation of a supportive and inclusive educational community. Continuous efforts and proactive measures will be essential in upholding these principles and ensuring the well-being of all members of the college community going forward.

The event kicked off with a soulful prayer song by Kum. Kavita, a student of B.A. 1st semester, followed by a warm welcome extended by Dr. Vijayakumar D, the Coordinator of the Women Counselling Cell and Anti-Ragging Cell, to the esteemed guests.

Formally inaugurating the programme, dignitaries watered a plant symbolizing growth and nurturing a safe environment. Shri. Kolli delivered the first talk, emphasizing various laws and Acts related to anti-sexual harassment. He elucidated the legal framework surrounding sexual harassment and its serious implications. Kum. Kanyashree shed light on the origins of ragging as a menace, detailing relevant sections of the Indian Penal Code (IPC) while stressing the importance of awareness and prevention.

Additionally, Dr. Vasanth Nashi encouraged students to promptly report instances of ragging or sexual harassment to the authorities, emphasizing the significance of collective action in curbing such activities. In the concluding remarks, Shri. Siddappa M Kanta expressed gratitude to all attendees and contributors.

The programme, attended by over 200 first-semester students, served as a platform for raising awareness on anti-ragging measures and fostering a culture of vigilance and support within the educational institution. Moving forward, continued initiatives are crucial, including exploring topics like mental health support systems, peer counseling, and building a strong community to effectively combat such challenges.

On July 4th, 2022, KPE Society's Dr. Ambedkar College of Arts and Commerce, Kalaburagi, held an Awareness Programme on the prohibition and prevention of sexual harassment in the college auditorium at 2 pm. Dr. Vijayakumar D addressed the students, offering comprehensive insights into The Sexual Harassment at Campus (Prevention, Prohibition, and Redressal) Act 2013. He emphasized the Act's significance in safeguarding students and reiterated the college's zero-tolerance policy towards any form of sexual harassment, affirming that strict actions would be taken against offenders.

Shri. Pandit highlighted the role and functions of the Anti-Sexual Harassment Cell within the college, underscoring its importance in ensuring a safe and conducive learning environment. The programme witnessed active participation from all members of the committee, as well as teaching and non-teaching staff. Additionally, first-year students enthusiastically engaged in the event, demonstrating their commitment to fostering a culture of respect and dignity within the college premises.

Kum. Aishwarya Kishan began by delving into the intricate web of laws and Acts aimed at combating sexual harassment, meticulously dissecting the legal framework surrounding this issue and accentuating its profound implications. Subsequently, Smt. Doddalaxmi illuminated the origins of ragging, portraying it as a societal menace, and expounded upon the relevant sections of the Indian Penal Code (IPC) associated with ragging, underscoring the paramount importance of fostering awareness and implementing preventive measures.

Such initiatives are crucial in raising awareness and fostering a sense of responsibility among students and staff, contributing to the creation of a supportive and inclusive educational community. Moving forward, continuous efforts and proactive measures will be essential in upholding these principles and ensuring the well-being of all members of the college community.
